

Better

5 Things You Can Do: August 20-23

by MACAIRE DOUGLAS

From dining al fresco at Chicago's first mariscos on the water, to perfecting your summer salad game, here are five things you can actually do this weekend.

Please take care and help our community fight COVID-19 — maintain at least 6 feet of distance, wear a mask and wash your hands properly and frequently, when going out.

Try Something New: Azul Mariscos

azulmariscoschicago
Azul Mariscos

View Profile

AZUL

MARISCOS MUELLE

Now Open!
Thursday-Sunday
1177 N Elston | Chicago

Latin-inspired seafood

Reservations | To Go Orders (available daily)
azulmariscos.com | 773.770.3766

Tired of your regular take-out or al fresco spot? Chicago has its first Mariscos (seafood) on the water with the opening of Azul, a new Latin-inspired restaurant and bar. Located along the Chicago river in the Goose Island neighborhood, Azul will serve an expansive menu of Latin-inspired fare, and has multiple patios for distanced dining. 1177 N. Elston Ave