

THE INFATUATION

7 New Things To Do & Eat In Chicago This Week

Check out these new openings, pop-ups, and special events happening in Chicago from June 1st to June 8th.

Written by Adrian Kane

As vaccination rates continue to rise and things start to open back up, the concept of “making plans” has officially re-entered our lives. So if you’re in need of some ideas, here are seven new openings, events, and special menus to check out this week.

Cielo Rooftop

$$$1177 N Elston Ave.

Cielo, the rooftop bar and restaurant on top of Azul Mariscos in Goose Island, just opened. It’s full of couches and cabanas with wooden pergolas, and it also has a view of the Chicago river. Like Azul, the menu is mostly seafood (with crudos and ceviches) and you can expect a whole lot of booze and bass while you’re here.